NATION-WIDE FOOT HEALTH WEEK APR. 19 TO APRIL 25, 1931

Dr. E. J. Anderson, of This City, Will Give Free Foot
Examination for Week

Nation-wide foot health week is sponsored by the National Association of Chiropractors ("Pediatricians") the National Association for Foot Health, National Manufacturers and Retailers of shoes and foot clinics throughout the nation. The purpose of Nation-wide foot health week is to focus attention upon the importance to health of keeping feet well and comfortable, and to create interest in the art of walking. Foot health is necessary for good health so states Doctor Royal S. Copeland, United Senator from New York, whose health articles appear in daily papers. It is a pity to think the physical body should grow less perfect as the direct result of civilized ways. But it has, certainly in some respects. That is particularly true of the feet.

"Men and women who are fussy to the last degree about clothing, will take any shape in shoes without question. They employ the best tailors and dressmakers, but accept whatever is offered in footwear. Of course," states Dr. Copeland, "he is discussing fit and not materials."

"Policemen, barbers, clerks in stores, farmers and laborers, housewives—anybody having occasion to stand on their feet long hours at a time can testify to the evil effects of foot defects. Tender feet, sore corns, aching joints, calloused soles—all these are bad enough. Then when these suffering feet are thrust into tight or ill-shaped shoes, there is an increase of misery."

"Don't neglect your poor suffering feet, give a little thought to your shoes. Have them fitted properly. Dr. Copeland also reminds us that it is not alone the shoes that must be borne in mind. Short stockings are capable of doubling up the toes and causing trouble."

"Nerves are put on edge and health undermined by steady pain no matter where it is located."

Take care of your feet and during this foot health week call Dr. E. J. Anderson, phone 152 and make appointment for a free examination of your feet. His office is located at 217 Union street.

L. & N. DEFENDANT IN $50,000 DEATH CLAIM SUIT

Negligence on Part of R. R.
Company Claimed—Mrs.
Merriam Died at Kings'
Daughters Hospital.
Gulfport, Miss.

The death last December of Mrs. Zeta Burgess Merriam, 58, resident of Georgia, who died at the Kings' Daughters Hospital in Gulfport following an automobile accident at Henderson Point when the automobile in which she was riding was struck by a Louisville & Nashville passenger train, was the basis of a $50,000 damage suit filed Wednesday in the circuit court of Harrison county against the railroad company by Mrs. S. D. Hanesworth of New Orleans and Dr. Lucien B. Merriam, son and daughter respectively, of the woman who lost her life in the accident.

Negligence upon the part of the railroad company is charged in five counts in the declaration of the plaintiffs, who claim that the view of the crossing was obstructed by bushes and undergrowth and by a box car standing on a siding near the crossing.

They also claim that the whistle was not blown or any other signal given by those in charge of the approaching train.

Another contention of the plaintiffs is that, owing to the amount of at the particular crossing a signal light or bell should have been maintained to warn motorists of approaching trains.

Mrs. Merriam at the time of her fatal injury was riding with her husband en route from Georgia to New Orleans to visit Mrs. Hanesworth, her daughter, where she expected to spend the Christmas holidays the declaration avers.

LIQUOR FROM KILN DITCHED

Auto Ditched Near Bogalusa
Reported to Have Contained "Good Kiln Liquor."

An auto ditched in the town of Bogalusa, La., came to grief with 40 gallons of whiskey characterized as "Good Kiln Liquor" by a press special to the Morning Tribune. The message says that Chief of Police Magee has in his possession the stuff which he found in the Ford coupe, with Mississippi license, Thursday night shortly after the driver had failed to see the turn at Superior avenue and went into a deep ditch at that point.

Two barrels of the "corn" evidently struck the driver, for they evidently were in the bottom of the car. The man driving the car was treated at the Elizabeth Sullivan Memorial hospital.

It is interesting, according to the estimate of the police, that the whiskey is yet some "good" liquor, and more interesting yet that it comes from Kiln. Thanks to prohibition.

SCHUBERT MUSIC CLUB TO PRESENT DELIGHT- FUL OPERETTA APR. 11

After weeks of strenuous rehearsing, the members of the Schubert Music Club are putting the finishing touches to the "Lost Necklace." The scene is laid in Spain during the grape harvest. A band of maidens at work among the vines are full of life and merriment. Margaret, a young American tourist, is invited by the grape-gatherers to join them. The mid-day siesta is interrupted by a gay troupe of Gypsies who dance, sing and tell fortunes, when Margaret suddenly finds her necklace gone and accuses the Gypsies of having stolen it. An interesting dramatic situation is created. The grape-gatherers finally pacify the Gypsies and the necklace is eventually found. All of the charm of old Spain gives a perfect background to a situation full of color and interest, and the music, characteristic Spanish, creates a perfect combination of artistic effect.

Reserved seat tickets at 75 cents, and general admission tickets of 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children may be obtained at the Beach Drug Store or through St. Margaret's Daughters. Get your tickets now, and help make the "Lost Necklace" a big success.

Chairman John J. Raskob has made a mistake in suggesting a poll of the members of the Democratic national committee on their views toward his plan to modify the 18th amendment. Any party pronouncement on that subject should be left severely alone until the national convention writes the party platform, and Chairman Raskob assumes too much authority when he seeks any commitment on the question from members of the committee. There is no doubt, The Echo believes, that the party will consider the prohibition question a matter of vital importance in the next campaign, but there are several issues of equal importance upon which the party must take a definite stand if it hopes to win.

GIVES HIMSELF UP.

Paul Wupper, for whom a nation-wide search had been made for more than two years, for embezzlement of "close to $1,000,000" from a Nebraska bank, revealed himself to Philadelphia police the other day. He told the authorities that he was tired of being hunted, fearing that sooner or later he would be caught and thought it was a good time to make a clean breast of things and ease his conscience. Perhaps he would never have given himself up but he was broke and facing a hearing on charges of bigamy preferred by wife No. 2, who had learned that he had a wife and two children in Nebraska.

ELECTION LESS THAN FIVE MONTHS OFF.

Less than five months remain before the first primary election to be held for the nomination of all candidates from governor down to constable. The woods are full of men and women who aspire to official place and power. It would be well for all of them to remember "many are called, but few are chosen" as the Good Book tells us, therefore we can look for "weeping, wailing and the gnashing of teeth" when the election returns come in.

POOR TENNESSEE.

If "misery loves company," then the people of Mississippi may find consolation in comparing their State's condition with that of Tennessee. Crooked officials, politicians and bankers have near about wrecked the old Volunteer State, and the legislative investigations now under way is developing evidence which may land some of the crooks in the penitentiary.

MISSISSIPPI'S LARGEST TAX PAYER.

The Illinois Central railroad company is Mississippi's largest taxpayer. For 1930 that corporation contributed to the State, counties and municipalities a grand total of $2,902,389.32. And yet there are some folks who think the I.C. and the other railroads in the State are not entitled to protection from unfair motor freight and passenger bus competition.

TAKING THE JOY OUT OF LIFE.

A "breath smeller" has been invented which detects the faintest odor of liquor on the human breath and scientifically establishes the amount of intoxicating beverage consumed. We agree with our brother of the Hattiesburg American who remarks: "It seems as though some fellows just take a delight in taking all the joy out of life."

GIVEN FIFTEEN YEARS.

For alleged fraud in using the United States mail, E. B. Williams of Marion county was given a penitentiary sentence of fifteen years by Federal Judge Grubb at Biloxi last week. Don't monkey with Uncle Sam's postal system if you expect to get a light sentence in the event you are convicted.

The supreme court has affirmed the seven-year penitentiary sentence imposed on J. Sam McGuire, McComb attorney, by the circuit court of Pike County. He was charged with aiding and abetting in the burglary of a jewelry store.

Four former officials of two defunct banks in Newton county have been arrested, being charged with false pretense and forgery. They face from three to six indictments each and their conviction will doubtless quickly follow their arraignment in circuit court.

The failure of the Hoover administration in giving to the American people the sort of government which was promised by Republican leaders affords the Democrats a golden opportunity to win a great victory in 1932. The economic conditions prevailing since the day Mr. Hoover went into the White House are directly traceable to broken promises made by the G.O.P. and it will be useless for its leaders to appeal for support from the millions of American voters who have suffered from empty stomachs in the past two years. In years gone by Republicans spellbinders proclaimed from every hilltop that election of their candidate means thirty wages and a full dinner pail for every working man. No longer can any such appeal be made. The hour has struck for our Democratic hosts to make it stick.

DELAY MEANS INJURY.

The paving of Highway 49, the most direct road from the Tennessee line to the Gulf Coast, should be the first to receive attention at the hands of the State Highway Commission, but we regret to say that such is not the case.

Efforts are being made and every influence is being brought to bear on the commission by communities along Highway 51, which parallels the Illinois Central railroad from Jackson to the Louisiana State line, to have that highway paved before anything is done toward the paving of Highway 49.

Hon. George R. Smith of Pass Christian, who is a candidate for floater representative from Harrison and Jackson counties in an interview printed in the New Orleans Times-Picayune a few days since, described the Mississippi Coast and communities between Jackson and Gulfport on Highway 49 as "sitting on a limb while some of the progressive communities on Highway 51 from Jackson to New Orleans by way of McComb and Brookhaven are energetically using every effort to saw off the limb," and continuing he is quoted as saying:

"It is known, or should be known by every one familiar with the political situation in Mississippi that cities along Highway 51 have for some time been using every effort to have that highway paved before Highway 49 is paved. If this is done it will result in diverting a large part of the southbound tourist and other traffic away from the Coast, and if Highway 49 should remain unpaved for any length of time after the paving of Highway 51, it will work a great injury to the Coast."

"It is my opinion that some action should be taken by the people of the coast and other communities interested in hastening the paving of Highway 49. It should be the policy of the state to first develop those highways which will tend to develop the state, and if this policy be followed Highway 49 will be the logical north and south artery of Mississippi."

Despite the fact that Governor Bilbo has been unsuccessful in his efforts to have a majority of the legislators come together in another extra session, "as the goat went to the convention—already voted"—The Echo has not wholly dispaired that there will not be another session, which event every community of the Coast section should join in an appeal to obtain favorable action in this important matter.

The Echo feels confident that if another session of the legislature is held ways and means for financing the ambitious plan for highway construction will be found. There has never been a time when the State was bankrupt in brains and wisdom and unable to solve any problem vitally affecting Mississippi and her people and we believe even now there are men composing the lawmaking branch of our State who can be trusted to solve the one now confronting the old Commonwealth.

KNUTE ROCKNE.

The passing on of no man, so far as we can recall, has ever received the extended publicity, or more eulogistic comment than that of Knute Rockne who met a tragic death in the wreck of an airplane last week.

Tribute to his genius as coach of the Notre Dame football team has been eclipsed by the tributes deservedly accorded him as a clean sportsman and Christian gentleman.

This nor any other country will perhaps never see his equal as football coach, nor one who exerted so fine an influence in popularizing a branch of athletic sports which until recent years have been looked upon as a more or less dangerous and brutal game.

His name and fame was known to every person throughout all the world who felt the least interest in football activities, and while his loss to Notre Dame University is indeed great, his untimely and tragic death is even a greater one to the national sport.

BILBO'S PLEDGES WILL NEVER BE SIGNED.

Governor Bilbo has again mailed pledges to be signed by members of the legislature whereby they must promise that no impeachment or investigation will be attempted in the event he calls the lawmakers back to Jackson. Having never lost confidence in the manhood and patriotism possessed by our State representatives and senators, we do not think the governor's pledges will be signed by the "substantial majority" he demands. Further, we believe the governor will in the end come to his senses and back down from the stubborn position he has taken, even though another extraordinary session of the lawmakers might result in impeachment and investigation of himself or some members of his administration.

PRETTY COSTLY.

Edgar S. Wilson in his "Mirrors of Mississippi" commenting on the cost of making a State campaign, says: "Incidents are reported where an unsuccessful candidate for the primary nomination for governor spent as much as $200,000." When we take into consideration the fact that the salary of the office of governor is only $7,500 per annum—$30,000 for the full term of four years—we just naturally wonder if it was not best for the State that that particular candidate's aspirations were thwarted and he did not get into the State house. Any man, who ever he might have been, willing to spend $200,000 of his own money—or that of his friends—was laying his plans to be reimbursed out of the public funds, of which there is no doubt.

BILOXI WINS SOLDIERS' HOME.

The Federal Board of Hospitalization has announced that the new branch of the soldiers' home will be located at Biloxi. Twenty-seven other cities and towns in the State made efforts to secure location of the home in their midst but the advantages offered by Biloxi won out with the result that the new home will be built in the city. Many thousands of dollars will be spent in the construction of the necessary buildings and beautifying the extensive grounds.

VIEWS OF OUR NEWS

By Chicagoan

Chicago, Ill., April 7.—As though they had been in consultation before writing their column in last week's paper, John T. Meyers of San Antonio and V. E. Weber of Waveland, made mention of the Bunny Rabbit of Easter time and the delights of children as they looked for eggs he left for them.

Under the influence of the joy of children, we all become very young in spirit, so with a copy of last week's Echo in my hand, I'm going to let my eyes and my brain hop around among the items of news, and like the little jumper of the kiddies' dreams, I'll stop to take a nibble now and then.

See here! Horace L. Kergosien, a scholar and a gentleman (and I do not say that lightly) has announced his candidacy for the office of Sheriff and Tax Collector. I hope all his opponents will be of the same high calibre. Then Hancock county will be assured an incumbent who will bring honor to the office. This mighty hard to ask simple folks to have respect for the law, when the enforcers of state and national statutes are not men who command the highest respect. To many the enforcing official represents everything there is to the law. In fact, in a large and influential area of our country, sheriffs, policemen and constables are referred to as the "Law." I think Echo readers have heard that expression now and then. Let's have men like Kergosien at the head of our law enforcing bodies. Then there'll be fewer of the kind that have brought disgrace to the prohibition enforcement department.

BAD—BUT NOT SO BAD AS 'QUAKE IN 1923.

An earthquake visits the City of Managua, in Nicaragua, and takes a toll of a thousand lives. Bad as the disaster is, it is not comparable to the calamity of a like kind which fell upon Japan in 1923, when two hundred and fifty thousand persons perished. Immediate relief, of a temporary sort at least, was possible in the Central American city, since members of the Marine Corps of the United States were on hand, and did the good work that might have been expected of them.

The doctors in a Yale class under investigation are making half as much as the men who are selling something. An auto salesman can take back a partly paid-for car, but what can a doctor do with a sawed-off leg, if his bill is not met?

POST-WAR INTEREST IN CRIME FILMS AT EBB, SAYS AUTHORITY.

A man in authority in the movie business says that the post-war interest of the public in crime films is at an end. His statement is reassuring, in that it indicates a better sense of discrimination on the part of the public, and a determination on the part of the producers to rid the screen of tiresome, underworld pictures. Note that he refers to a "post-war" interest. Few writers and public speakers have had the courage or the insight that would prompt them to place the responsibility for much that is sordid in our national life, where it really belongs, namely, upon the World War.

Well, an Easter dance was held on Easter Monday, I see by last week's paper. It was sponsored by the W. O. W., and many hied themselves to Sauer's Band to trip the light fantastic toe to the strains of the Jazz Band. Several referred to the event as a "hop," but not because it was an Easter dance. Some of the older folks who attended . . . merely to look on . . . are of the opinion that the hop of the rabbit is far more graceful than that of the modern dance.

So while the rabbit may hop in reality, and while it may be proper to term the modern dance as "hop," such hops do not concern the Bay Panthers who opened the League season by meeting the strong Pass Christian aggregation last Sunday. I know that G. Y. Blaize did not find it necessary to remind his "Panthers" that when a ball hits the ground it is most likely to hop. In the game I played as a boy, "First bounce" was "out!" But in the rules adhered to by the Coast League, first bounce is "out" . . . with a different meaning for the quotation marks.

POLAND SHOULD HAVE HAD ENOUGH FROM DISTRESSING HISTORY.

Poland is dickering with Russia, in an attempt to capture a larger portion of the Russian trade. Contact of any kind with Sovietism will mean a corruption of sound ideals of government, for which dollars afford no adequate recompense.

Poland seems to be a glutton for punishment, and to have learned little from her turbulent and distressing history.

OTTER SURPASSES CUNNINGNESS OF MAN.

The papers report that an otter tunneled under a dam on a game preserve, waited until the water ran out, and then picked up the fish from the mud. The sagacity of wild creatures often is unknown or overlooked by city and town folk.

COURTESY, GOOD ROADS AND URGE OF THE FLOWING BOWL.

Tourists spent about three million dollars in Canada last year. Ominous courtesy and good roads had much to do with the influx of visitors from the United States. One is entitled to speculate as to how many will be filled with hallowed memories and without no regrets. Life can bring no finer gift than that.

REMEDY FOR COLD TO BE FOUND IN THE MARKET BASKET.

Notwithstanding its long-time prevalence, little is known regarding the causes of an ordinary cold. A scientist has come forward with the theory that it arises out of an improper diet. It will be a great day for humanity when it is definitely settled that this age-old disorder can be cured by remedies to be found in the market basket or dinner pail.

Generous Cop.

"Here," cried the traffic officer, "where did you get that speed stuff?" "Oh, on the Polkman, we live little Ley was going to the baseball game."

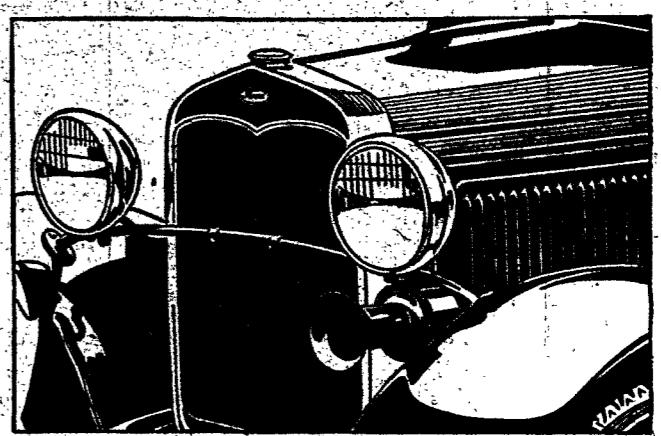

"You were, eh? About forty miles an hour?" I guess I'll hand you a ticket."

"On, thank you, Mrs. policeman. Can you give me ten for little Ley, too?"

ANOTHER EXAMPLE OF FORD VALUE

Bright, enduring RUSTLESS STEEL is used for many exposed bright metal parts of the Ford

WHEN YOU BUY a Ford you buy enduring beauty. The body finish is made to last for the life of the car and practically all exposed bright metal parts except the bumpers are made of enduring Rustless Steel.

This Rustless Steel has great tensile strength. It is the same bright metal all the way through. A salt test equivalent to forty years' service under the severest weather conditions failed to have any effect on its brilliance. It never requires polishing. All you do is wipe it with a damp cloth, as you do your windshield.

This is just one of many features that show the substantial worth of the Ford. In speed, comfort, safety, economy and long life—in the richness of its finish and upholstery—it brings you everything you want or need in a motor car at an unusually low price.

Call or phone for demonstration.

"I want my Telephone Put Back in please"

Almost daily people who discontinued their telephones during the stress of the past twelve months are ordering their service restored. They found that the small cost of the service had been repaid many times each month in convenience, in time and actually in money saved.

Others found that the loss of their telephones would soon mean the loss of friends, because of the lack of close and personal contact made possible only by telephone service. Still others mention that the sacrifice of their telephone meant the loss of many pleasant, impromptu social gatherings when their friends were unable to reach them by telephone.

It is all true, what these subscriber friends of ours say: Telephone service costs so little and the advantages of the service are so many that it really doesn't pay to try to do without it.

UNITED STATES TO BORROW TWO HUNDRED MILLIONS

Loan at 1.78 Percent; Billion More Needed By End of June.

Washington, April 8.—A week from today the Treasury will have obtained nearly two billion dollars in a month to offset declining receipts, ray government expenses and meet requests for loans to World War veterans.

Before May and June elapse, it must have additional funds to provide for $803,218,000 worth of maturing securities.

An announcement last night said $275,000,000 in eight-month indebtedness certificates, bearing 1.78 percent interest, will be sold. Last March 16, bonds and certificates ag-of the $1,517,000,000 raised March posed of, making the total for the thirty days $1,892,000,000.

Must Retire Bills

Next month the treasury must provide for the maturing of $214,218,000 in treasury bills. In June it will need $589,000,000 to pay maturing certificates of indebtedness.

Of the $1,517,000,000 raised March 16, maturing treasury notes were revised with $1,109,000,000. To the Veterans' Bureau for loans on adjusted compensation certificates went $300,000,000. It was not said what portion of the April 15, issue, will supply funds until the May 15, issuing, will be allotted to the bureverans. Veterans Administrator Hines has asked for $1,000,000,000 more than has been provided, and estimated $1,000,000,000 would be required to pay all loans.

Deficit $700,000,000

The veterans loans now being made do not affect the prospective $700,000,000 deficit, and will not add to it until $750,000,000 in government securities in the veterans compensation fund are exhausted. To use this $750,000,000 however, it is necessary to retire them and sell negotiable paper to raise the money.

Nothing has happened to make officials believe the approaching deficit will be much less than $700,000,

000 at the end of the fiscal year next June 30. Last Saturday the deficit was $6604,940,213.

Call Off 2 Hangings So Sheriff Can Attend Meet

Jackson, Miss., April 8.—Sheriff John Sterling of Washington county wanted to attend the Peace Officers' Convention, opening here today so he had Governor Biblo postpone two executions scheduled in his county for this week. As a result of the governor's interference, Robert Tyler and Willie Ellis, negroes will not hang tomorrow and Friday and Sheriff Sterling was enroute to the convention.

Governor Biblo granted Tyler a respite from his scheduled execution to-morrow until April 24, and reset El- lis' execution for the same date.

Biblo, under a Supreme Court order, was to have hanged Friday.

Both negroes were charged with the murder last year of King Lee and both were unsuccessful in appeals to the supreme court. The stay of execution was the second postponement of death for Tyler by the governor.

DRY LAW ENRICHES OTHER NATIONS SAYS COMMITTEEMAN

Americans Spend Millions In Canada, Norman Mack Tells Raskob.

Washington, April 8.—The theory that American women are contributing to the depression by sending money abroad appeared today in the mass of comment on the Raskob home rule plan.

Norman E. Mack of Buffalo, New York national Democratic committeeman, was in Washington when he read the letter from Chairman Raskob asking platform suggestions from national committeemen.

Mack said he thought the 1932 platform should include a plan for repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment whereas the national committee chairman proposed that amendment be retained and another adopted to permit states to decide individually whether they would have prohibition.

Spend Millions in Canada.

"To my mind," Mack asserted, "the bottom is out of prohibition."

Basing his statement on observations at the border point of Buffalo, Mack said he thought the amount of money Americans were spending in Canada and abroad contributed to "the conditions in this country."

"Every day hundreds of automobiles cross over to Canada," he said.

The tourists, he added, "not only spend the day in Port Erie but a day in Hamilton, perhaps, or a week in Toronto."

"If all they did was wine and dine" he explained, "I wouldn't object, but every woman who goes with her husband is under the impression that she can save money in buying Canadian goods. The amount of money spent in Canada by American women is tremendous."

Meanwhile, others continued to express divergent opinions on the Raskob poll. Senator Norris, Republican, Nebraska, a leader at the recent Progressives' conference, said he believed Raskob was attempting to develop a "sham battle" over prohibition.

Enforce or Repeal

He said that if prohibition cannot be enforced it ought to be repealed, but insisted it should have a further trial.

"I don't think the American people will ever repeal the Eighteenth amendment until they have been given some definite plan they believe will work," he said. "The only solution so far proposed is a return to the saloon. I think everyone will admit it has not had a fair chance."

LAKESHORE NOTES.

Miss Leverna Green just returned home after spending several days in New Orleans as a guest of Mrs. I. E. Burnett.

Jockey Raymond Ashley motored over from New Orleans and was the guest of Victor Green Family. Ashley was on his way to Columbus, Ohio where he will ride at Beulah Park.

Both negroes were charged with the murder last year of King Lee and both were unsuccessful in appeals to the supreme court. The stay of execution was the second postponement of death for Tyler by the governor.

Pecans Vs. Pines

Pecans have largely supplanted pines in the region surrounding Lumberton, Miss., according to the April issue of the Illinois Central Magazine.

This change has been brought about by Mississippi's fertile soil and by the Bass Pecan Company, now the largest pecan-tree growing company in the world, which started operations in 1909 with but one acre of land and which now embraces a property of 7,300 acres. Four hundred acres are used jointly for orchards and a nursery, and 200 additional acres are devoted to orchards alone.

The remaining acreage is being held for continued development and expansion. Approximately two million young pecan trees are constantly kept in the nursery.

Reassuring The Diners.

"We have rabbit stew on the bill today," said the restaurant manager.

"Yes, sir."

"Well, just scatter some catnip around among the chairs. I want to have pussy, well in view today."

AMOS AND ANDY LIVE THE CHARACTERS THEY WOULD PORTRAY ON AIR

Gosden as Amos and Correll as Andy In Turn Portray All Other Characters—How They Get Up Their Stuff And Broadcast.

By C. E. BUTTERFIELD
(Associated Press Radio Editor)

Amos 'n' Andy live the characters they portray.

The comedians who for more than five years have maintained popular interest through nearly a thousand sketches actually are, for certain times each day, the persons their changing voices call into existence.

For example, when Amos switches and becomes Brother Crawford, he bounces up and down in his chair, Andy before the microphone is really Andy. The minute that voice starts, thumbs go into the button holes of the vest and the chest is thrown out.

Their contracts bear the signatures of Freeman Gosden as Amos and Charles J. Correll as Andy.

The boys never use assistants despite the many roles they do. Here are the parts Amos takes, including the breach of promise trial that concluded in victory for Andy: The Kingfish, Brother Crawford, Lightnin', the judge, Smith the prosecutor and Madame Queen.

Andy is the landlord, the policeman, the salesman and other occasional characters, besides taking the part of Lawyer Collins and the bailiff in the trial. Thus Andy was his own attorney.

Supersensitive to the presence of others when they are broadcasting, Amos 'n' Andy never permit any one in their 12-by-12foot workflow studio. The only person who sees them in action is the control operator.

Not even M. H. Aylesworth, president of the National Broadcasting company and their "boss," has seen them broadcast. Nor their wives, for that matter.

However here's how they do the job:

Each sits at the near corner of a small table containing two microphones, one for emergencies.

When Andy comes to voice, Correll's lips are within two inches of the microphone. Amos generally stays two feet away, except when he portrays another character. Then he leans back in his chair, or even leaps to his feet. The principal sound effect is a telephone bell.

Sunday is their day of rest, but on week days the comedians work hard. Out of bed around 9 a. m., they go to their offices and devote the time until noon to their mail.

Then comes the job of writing their sketch. Andy is the typist. He uses the touch system and is a speeder.

Each script is four pages long. No one assists them in the writing which continues until 3 or 4.

After that there is a recreation period, and at 5:30 central time the two are at WMAQ, Chicago, in plenty of time for their appearance at 6 o'clock.

There is no rehearsal. Five minutes before the zero hour, they take a glance through the day's script. Just as the theme song song is about to end, they enter their studio.

The announcer Bill Hay, is in another room with the musicians. Meanwhile he has been given the opening and closing introductions for the sketch, which also are written by Amos 'n' Andy. Credit announcements are handled through a different source.

While Hay's voice has become as familiar as those of Amos 'n' Andy, he has no other part in the conduct of the program.

J. P. Office Constitutional.

RASKOB AGAIN RECOMMENDS LIQUOR STAND

Chairman Once More Advances "Home Rule" Plan In Urging Democrats to Take Definite Position.

Washington, April 6.—Another suggestion that Democrats avoid straddling and adopt a definite 1932 platform on controversial subjects—including prohibition—was before that party today in a letter from Chairman Raskob of the national committee.

He asked each national committee man to make individual recommendations for the 1932 platform and give "particular" attention to prohibition.

Once more he advanced his home rule plan as what he believes to be a solution of liquor questions. Then, answering accusations that he was attempting to dictate to the party, he recalled that the last Democratic convention charged the national committee of which he is chairman with making "recommendations of policies or procedure for the consideration of the convention."

It was with this instruction in mind, he said, that he called the recent national committee meeting at which he advanced the home rule plan and other suggestions.

"Whether we like it or not," he wrote, "prohibition is a critical question in many of our states."

Foresees Support.

The voters, he asserted, will support the party "whose policies and conduct appeal to them as being sincere, honest, courageous, best guaranteeing the preservation of our democracy and promoting freedom and happiness as against life of tyranny and strife."

"If this line of thought is sound, the Democratic party can profit therefrom through the adoption of a platform which will enunciate simply and clearly, without equivocation and in language a 14-year-old child can understand, the principles it proposes and promises to enforce in the conduct of our government if its candidates are elected," Raskob added.

"If the Democratic party is interested only in winning one election, it might be argued with a great deal of force that we should avoid or straddle all controversial issues and resort to every expediency to gain votes, not through courageous leadership on our own part but through promoting dissatisfaction with the Republican party in every conceivable way."

Other Suggestions.

His other recommendations presented for consideration of the national committeemen were to:

"Take the government out of business and relieve trade from unnecessary and unreasonable governmental restriction."

"Clearly define our tariff policies."

"Decry policy of government price fixing schemes and attempts to maintain prices artificially."

"Develop some plan of cooperation between our national committee and the duly elected Democratic members of the Senate and House of Representatives."

"Realize the absolute necessity of strong leadership."

"Develop some scheme of farm relief which will rebound to the benefit of our whole country."

"Develop old-age and unemployment insurance based on cooperative effort between capital and labor."

"Advance the movement for a five-day week without diminution of weekly wage."

"Correct an injustice in the Sherman law" so beneficial mergers may be consummated."

Let the states exercise "police control" over public utilities.

A Candidate's Troubles.

The brilliant and versatile editor of the Commercial Dispatch, Columbus, Miss., Hon. Birney Innes, has this to say about a candidate in North Mississippi who kept an accurate record of his campaign:

"Lost 34 hours of sleep thinking about the election. Lost two front teeth and a lot of hair in a personal encounter with an opponent. Donated one beef, four geese and five sheep to county barbecues. Gave away two pairs of suspenders, four calico dresses $5.00 in cash and 15 baby rattles. Kissed 126 babies. Put up 4 stoves. Kindled 4 fires. Shook hands with 9,503 people. Walked 976 miles. Told 10,101 lies and talked enough to make in print 10 volumes. Attended 16 revivals and was baptized four times by immersion and twice by other ways. Contributed $50.00 to foreign missions and made love to nine widows, five grass and four sod. Hugged 40 old maids. Got dog bitten 9 times and was elected by 353 majority."

Gov. Long's Own Monument

Louisiana's capital, Baton Rouge, is to have a 33-story capitol building, costing approximately $3,000,000, according to the Illinois Central Magazine for April, which features a picture of the structure as its cover design. This skyscraper will stand upon land over which the flags of seven nations have flown during two hundred years of colorful Louisiana history. It will tower 433 feet and will cover an average city block. January 15, 1932, is the date set for its completion.

Chicks Now Where Fighters Met.

On the same land near Hattiesburg, Miss., where John L. Sullivan and Jake Kilrain fought a generation ago now stand eighty-one modern buildings belonging to the 360-acre Drumm Egg Farms, one of the biggest institutions of its kind in the country, according to the Illinois Central Magazine for April. The site was chosen by the owner, L. M. Drumm while on a visit to the scene of the historic prize fight. When the Drumm establishment is running at capacity, close to 100,000 eggs are shipped in a single week all over North America. Approximately 10,000 hens furnish the eggs. From 25,000 to 30,000 chicks are brooded each year. Electric lighting prolongs the day in the twenty-six laying houses.

Miss Nelson will be glad to see visitors from Bay St. Louis as well as from elsewhere.

Here's A Thriller.

Emulating the movie thrillers, a passenger on the Illinois Central Panama Limited was recently obliged to take an airplane from Jackson to Grenada, Miss., to reboard the train, after a dash in a taxicab to an adjacent coaling stop had failed, reports the Illinois Central Magazine for April. The passenger stepped off the train at Jackson to buy a newspaper and failed to notice its departure.

Dance given for benefit of the Waveland ball team was a financial success and the boys were highly elated, so much so, they tied themselves to Gulfport on Easter Sunday, with the intention of knocking the Gulfport pitcher out of the box. After the smoke of battle cleared away, our boys found out they scored zero.

They claim the long trip made them dry-eyed and they saw two balls and always struck at the wrong one. But we have a good team and they will pull to the top.

Hotels On Mississippi Gulf Coast Assets Are Of No Insignificant Amounts

Preliminary figures indicate that when all Coast innkeepers have turned in their totals, it will be found that hotels release in payrolls on the Coast each year more than half a million dollars in new money, says the Mississippi Guide, and that their local purchases of foodstuffs exceed $250,000—two tidy sums placed in circulation each year in the cities between Bay St. Louis and Ocean Springs.

Service Record With R. R.

Son has succeeded father in the same position on the Illinois Central System for three generations at New Orleans, La., according to the April issue of the Illinois Central magazine.

When Henry J. Bruning died in 1895, he was succeeded as outbound freight warehouse foreman by his son, W. H. Bruning, who in turn was succeeded after his death in 1930 by his son, W. A. Bruning. These two other Brunings have worked for the Illinois Central System in New Orleans from 1885 to 1931 for a total family service record of ninety-one years:

BILOXI IS CHOSEN FOR SOUTHERN SOLDIERS HOME

Hoover Approves Site Picked By Federal Board Monday

Biloxi, Mississippi, has been chosen as the site for the new Southern Soldiers' home and the choice Monday received the approval of President Hoover.

The recommendation for this location was made by the Federal Board of Hospitalization, who were impressed with the site donated by Biloxi for many years.

First, because of its location on the inlet of the Gulf of Mexico, where the warm Gulf helps to make an equitable climate and affords bathing and outdoor water recreations the year round.

Second, because Biloxi has not only an even climate and is near the water, but it is located on high land, with a wealth of oak and pine trees and the atmospheric conditions to cheerfulness and health.

Near New Orleans.

Third, the resort is within a short distance of New Orleans, where shopping and medical facilities will be readily at hand. The large Veterans' hospital at Gulfport will be only a few minutes ride away from the new institution.

Because of these many advantages, together with the beauty and natural attractions of the site, Biloxi won out against a great deal of competition, as the decision was made after a number of Southern locations had been considered, among them 67 sites in 27 different cities of Mississippi.

The decision was reached at a session held last week, but announcement of the choice was not made until after it had received the President's approval.

Three Others Sought.

Definite plans as to size and cost of the new home have not yet been announced, but a total of $2,000,000 was authorized by Congress last June for a soldiers' home in the South. It later developed that one large home would not be practical and it is now planned to establish one at Tuskegee, Alabama, another somewhere in South Carolina and another in Florida.

Because of its proximity to the Gulfport Veterans' hospital and to New Orleans the Biloxi home will not have hospital facilities, but extensive recreational features are planned for the home, to include golf courses, and surf bathing equipment.

It is expected that work on plans and specifications for the new building will be started immediately.

Mississippi Not Lacking In Gasoline Filling Stations.

One gasoline station to every 134 people in Mississippi is the discovery made at Jackson, headquarters for gas inspection. This is the estimate of the State gasoline inspector who gives the gas outlets at 15,000 and "consisting of drive-in service stations, garages and stations at grocery stores."

J. M. Dean, state inspector, estimates that these stations dispense about 140,000,000 gallons of gasoline annually.
